

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, On November 20, 1948, a boy child was born and christened Richard James Shangreaux; and,

WHEREAS, Rich grew to manhood in Pierre, South Dakota, and received his high school diploma from Riggs High School; and,

WHEREAS, Rich married Lori Boyd on July 17, 1982, and together they have been blessed with five daughters, Dena, Kea, Tracy, Amy and Julie, setting the state for the next major event in Rich's life--GRANDFATHERHOOD; and,

WHEREAS, Rich's family state that at one time he was a useful member, but his usefulness is drawing quickly to a close as he approaches the age of Geritol, dentures, prunes and Medicare; and,

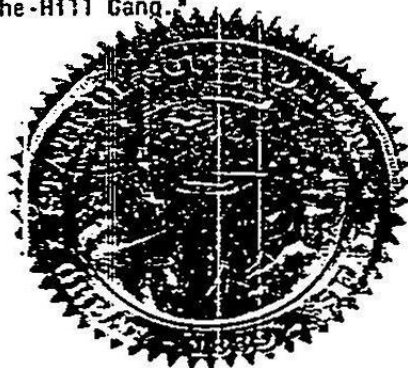

WHEREAS, Rich Shangreaux is racing to his FORTIETH birthday, an event which will end his trustworthiness and relegate his social life to rocking chairs and lap rugs; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper for the Governor to proclaim to all of South Dakota that Rich Shangreaux is just plain OLD:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim November 20, 1988, as in South Dakota, and I urge all of Rich's many friends and relatives to mock him and rub it in because he is now a member in good standing of the "Over-the-Hill Gang."

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this First Day of November, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR
